

February IWIL Program Registration Form

“Opening Doors to Career Success”

Speaker: Sharon Thornton Knop
Leadership Development Advisor,
State Farm Insurance

Women sometimes struggle when it comes to knowing and promoting their strengths and building their reputation. Are you leveraging your strengths to reflect your best work? Have you built your brand so that others are aware of your skills and abilities? Knowing your strengths and using them to achieve results and success are the first steps toward getting recognized. Using this information to build your brand will help you open doors to new opportunities. The final step is having the courage to move through the door by defeating self-doubt.
