IWIL strives to inspire and empower its community of professional women, breaking down industry and generational barriers to cultivate personal growth and career advancement. One way IWIL seeks to inspire and empower this year is by encouraging you to grow your network – seeking and offering mentorship to one another. When you participate in IWIL luncheons, special events and committees, you grow your network of mentors and mentees – or as we like to call them, friends!

This month's luncheon will feature a multi-generational panel of women who will share how they have established mentor/mentee relationships in their personal and professional lives. Their tips and stories will inspire you to seek one another differently, to share what you know and seek out what you don't know. We wish to urge, encourage and inspire each IWIL member to step just outside of her comfort zone and sit with, talk to and get to know someone new. One never knows what kind of friendship is one conversation away! Join us.

Facilitator: Diane Newell has had a career in Human Resources in multiple areas of industry, including manufacturing, Consumer Package Goods, Consulting and Distribution and most recently as the Vice President of Human Resources at BUNN.
